Robin Barney from Keizertimes

• Background info

- first Keizer newspaper - Oct 28, 1949
- Newspaper started by Hellen Olsen, fruit editor of Keizer news - sponsored by social organization - Keizer commercial club.
- Mid-1940s Keizer became more densely populated than its previous sparse farmland.
- Keizer Merchant Association developed in 1959 - helped businesses with all kinds of needs to establish them in Keizer.
- Keizer Chamber of Commerce took over this job in 1987.

• Keizertimes

- Keizertimes has been sold a couple times but this has never compromised the quality of its reporting.
- In the beginning, Keizertimes was a bimonthly newspaper.
- Keizertimes sponsors a lot of events and has received numerous awards in the publishing world.
- Keizertimes leadership has always tried to support the residents of Keizer by helping them or connecting them with resources or individuals that can help.

- Keizertimes has always made it a point to report news as it occurs and be unbiased, however, as technology moves toward the digital age, the Keizertimes will do the same; plans for Keizertimes to go fully digital are underway and plans to do so next year.
- New reporter has been hired.

8. School Updates

Keizer Elementary, McNary High School

- Keizer Elementary - Claudia (CSOCS)
 - Claudia started a Closet at Keizer Elementary.
 - Keizer Elementary has over 600 students and has added two additional classrooms this year.
 - Keizer Elementary is a Title 1 school. There is a great need for assistance for our agricultural workers, low income students and many more here in Keizer. Care and Connect Closet - Mendoza 's Closet helps meet the needs.
 - Keizer Elementary was one of the first schools in Keizer to receive refugees.
 - Keizer Elementary - Culture Club - students attend club during recess and learn about other cultures and try the food of those cultures.
 - Claudia, with support from the NWKNA is in the process of creating an Amazon wishlist, this wishlist will have anything that Keizer Elementary students need to succeed and have their needs met. A flyer with a QR code is also in the works to allow ease of access; this flyer will be in Spanish and English.
 - NWKNA is in the process of add this all this information to its website so the Keizer community has access to the list.
 - Immediate Need ' 25 bars of chewy bars ' Quaker chewy bars - because this has no nuts so it is safe for all kids

Mendoza's Closet

<https://northwestkeizer.org/mendozascloset>

- New principal at the school - will attend NWKNA May meeting.
- McNary High School
 - McNary culinary art will be showcasing our very one Maryanne Sangster's family recipe for Monster Cookie, this recipe that is over 50 years old as it was passed down from Maryanne's mother. Maryanne was gracious enough to share the recipe with the students and is excited to see how those delicious cookies turn out.
